

Conference Position Statement

AUSTRALIAN CHRISTADELPHIAN CONFERENCE ► BRISBANE 2026

This position statement for the Australian Christadelphian Conference to be held in Brisbane in 2026, God willing, has been approved by the Executive Committee for the information of organisers and attendees.

Conference Aims

- To give glory to God (Colossians 3;16,17).
- To assist in the spiritual growth of all who attend.
- To strengthen friendships in the "bonds of the truth".
- To promote understanding among ecclesias and strengthen relationships.
- To provide a venue for the conduct of the biennial business meeting of Australian ecclesias.

Fellowship

- The basis of fellowship for Brisbane 2026 is as agreed by Australian ecclesias, namely "the 1958 Unity Basis as expressed in pages 13 - 15 of the Unity Book"
- The Conference Committee will refer matters relating to the fellowship standing of an individual wishing to attend the Conference to the sponsoring and home Ecclesias for resolution.

Activities

- All activity arrangements will be approved by the Conference Committee.
- Brothers may be invited to present, offer public prayer and read aloud from Scripture to any audience.
- Sisters may be invited to present expositional material, offer public prayer and read aloud from Scripture to audiences of sisters, women and children.
- Sisters may be invited to present non-expositional material to any audience.

Dress

- Please thoughtfully consider choice of clothing consistent with the Conference aims.
- Sisters are asked to wear a head covering at the Memorial Meeting; however, the Conference Committee recognises this is a matter of conscience.

Music

- Hymns and spiritual songs for congregational worship will be chosen from the 2002 Christadelphian Hymn Book and other sources.
